Information about the processing of personal data

Personal data that you submit in this application, or that is otherwise registered within the framework of the application process, is processed for the assessment and subsequent administration of your application, including the possible publication of whether or not your application have been approved. Personal data may be supplemented with data from private and public databases, such as address information updates using the Swedish national personal address database, SPAR.

The Foundation serves as the controller of the data. Handelsbanken handles the Foundation's administration and acts as its data processor.

The personal data is stored as long as it is necessary for processing purposes, and for the Foundation to be able to fulfil its legal duties.

If you require information about what personal data of yours is being processed on behalf of the Foundation, you can send a written request to Handelsbanken's Foundation Service, SE-106 70 Stockholm, Sweden. Indicate the foundation concerned.

Comprehensive information about the processing of personal data and the registered party's rights in conjunction with this processing is available at www.handelsbanken.se.

Consent for the processing of special categories of personal data

If the data includes special categories of personal data, your consent is required to process this data. Under the GDPR, special categories of personal data are defined as personal data that reveals race or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, as well as genetic data, biometric data to unequivocally identify a physical person, data about health, or information about a physical person's sex life or sexual orientation.

By signing this document, I consent to such information, where applicable, being processed by the Foundation and the administrator insofar as is necessary for processing purposes.
